Anne of Cleves House Museum & Gardens

Discover how the Tudor and Elizabethans lived in this impressive 15th century timber framed Wealden hall-house. The house was given to Anne as part of her divorce settlement from Henry VIII and features authentically furnished rooms and a traditional Tudor planted garden. The cafe and Tudor tea garden have separate access to the museum which allows non-museum visitors to enjoy delicious food and drinks in this beautiful setting. Look out for talks and workshops throughout the year.

2

Lewes Castle & Museum

Climb to the top of this Norman Castle for stunning panoramic views across Sussex.

The adjoining Barbican House is home to the Museum of Sussex Archaeology, displaying artefacts from prehistoric to medieval Sussex. In addition, temporary exhibitions showcase treasures from our collections. There is a delightful model of the town and a short film telling the story of Lewes. Bring picnics to enjoy in the lovely gardens and look out for talks and workshops throughout the year.
