

Camping at Fishbourne Roman Palace

Booking online only

Arrival – book in at the Palace reception from 14.00 to 16.30

Departure – site to be cleared by 11.00

Features:

Wild camping in a truly unique setting

Pitch your tent inside a unique experimental earthwork next to the atmospheric Roman Palace and Gardens in the historical village of Fishbourne.

Camp within Fishbourne Roman Palace's grounds- home to the largest collection of early mosaic floors in Britain

50% discount entry to the Palace on production of your camping booking

Dogs welcome (on a lead at all times please)

Toilets on site & potable water

Water available

Free adjacent car park to leave your car after pitching up

Use of the Palace's café for breakfasts, light lunches and drinks

Easily accessible from Fishbourne train station (5-10 minutes' walk)

Close to wildlife corridor, cycle paths and walking routes

Ideal for stargazing – don't forget a good torch as the site is not lit!

Pitches are grass and 6m x 6m (approx)

Included in your charge:

Bring 1 x gazebo

1 x awning

Pooch tent

Maximum 2 x cars

Terms & Conditions

Family groups (immediate members) singles and couples only

No electricity on site – we are a truly wild, back to nature site!

No showers on site

No chemical waste disposal point

No hen or stag parties

No music

Under 18's must be accompanied by a parent or legal guardian

Please leave this rich heritage site clean of litter and as you found it for the next campers to enjoy

Gas BBQ's only, no fire pits or disposable BBQ's

Tents and trailer tents only

£25 per night for a family up to 6

£15 per night for single / couples

This site is true wild camping so there is no warden and belongings are left at the owner's risk.